

Top 5 reasons why people love Group Mind workshops:

1. Direct application

Many staff shared it was their favorite session of the day. It gave great training to staff on how to be servant leaders with the campers they serve this summer.

~Penny Christensen, Director of Lutheran Outdoor Ministries of Ohio

We can customize any workshop to fit the needs of your staff and/or organization.

2. Makes an impact

Outstanding...It was a growth experience benefiting us both as individuals and as a staff.

~Rev. Will Hartfelder, Grace Lutheran Church, Westerville, Ohio

We don't waste your time. Our goal is to assist you in helping your staff grow in the areas you desire.

3. Builds relationships

We were able to grow in community with one another...and [understand] how we each need to be part of the congregation to be a strong force in our community.

~Nick, Clinton Heights Lutheran Church

Your team will thrive as they grow in familiarity with one another.

4. Not your same old, same old workshop

The flow was fabulous! The three rules of improv have direct application to what we do on council. It got us off to a great start. I'm very thankful for that.

~Rev. Steve Brown, St. Luke Lutheran Church, Gahanna, OH

We remember 10% of what we hear and 90% of what we experience. Our workshops will get your team up and moving for better retention and a great experience.

5. It's fun

Constructive, fun - a real bonding experience.

~Dan, St. Luke Lutheran Church

So much fun! And I learned to be at ease with others in the group. What a great opportunity.

~Terri, St. Luke Lutheran Church

When people laugh together they bond. A shared enjoyable experience knits people together much better than your typical paper and pen seminar.
